Knowledge of research methods used in sociology and comparative culture deepens students' understanding of cultural research.

Japanese Social Sciences (SOC)

This subject examines Japanese society from a sociological perspective, considering politics, economics and management, including discussion of international relations. Students deepen their understanding of Japanese society through investigations of current affairs and historical analyses.

- ※ Depending on the results of the placement test, those students for whom it is deemed necessary are required to take Japanese Language Subjects (JGV or MGV  $\alpha/\beta$ , etc.) designated by their instructors.

- ※ Depending on the results of the placement test, students who are judged to be within the C2 range of Japanese proficiency must take a specified number of research subjects per year: a minimum of 18 for Research Course students, and a minimum of 21 for Practical Japanese Course students.

- ※ In the Spring-Summer term, students may register and take up to two classes offered by other faculties. These classes relate to Japanese language and culture and are specifically designated by the CJLC. Such classes count as Research subjects (R) toward the credit requirements for completion of the J Program.

4. Extracurricular Activities

To improve students' Japanese language skills and to deepen their understanding of Japanese language, culture and society, the CJLC plans various activities on and off campus.

- (1) The CJLC offers opportunities to view Japanese traditional performing arts, such as kabuki and bunraku, in order to help students deepen their understanding of Japanese art and culture.
- (2) The CJLC plans tours of places of interest for students to help them better understand Japanese history, folklore, economy and business management.
- (3) To experience the culture of Japanese daily life, students may participate in the host family program and other events organized or introduced by Osaka University Center for International Education and Exchange (5th floor, Minoh Campus).

※ Various activities are organized in addition to those listed above. Detailed information will be posted on the bulletin board near the CJLC Office or CJLC Library Room.
